

Quincyan of the Week!

By: Janice Vogel

A long time ago in a galaxy far, far, far, far, away... is a maze of frenzy. Radical laser beams, striking from a secret base, have won their first conquest against the wicked Nipper Empire. As luck would have it, Skywalker Scott got a new lightsaber for his last birthday and has been practicing his sweet moves while pondering an "epic battle for good and evil." He loves the flash of light and hum as he strikes the air with this powerful and beloved weapon of all time. "Who wouldn't want to be able to use this kind of force to defeat all evil?" he thought . . .

Jeff . . . Jeff . . . wake up! You are not a Jedi Knight. You are the Quincyan of the Week!

Jeff Scott. Fictional character or a big kid? It doesn't matter - because he's all about fun and proud of it! Maybe that's why this born Quincyan chooses to spend the majority of his time with children - his and everyone else's! Jeff manages the family-owned Scotties Fun Spot! I think he and his family get their mail there too. He did remind me that "most people don't realize the sacrifices we make to run a business that mainly operates nights and weekends. Working with family day in and day out is also a great achievement. I can't imagine that just any family could do it. We could have a reality TV show," says Jeff. "We would have OCC beat hands down!" Perhaps.

Jeff's real life includes his lovely fiancé Rachel Leclair along with Miss Avery (8), Riley (6), Lucas Leclair (9), and Shane Leclair (6). And when they're not at the Fun Spot, they like playing outside - doing "whatever sport is in season." Some of the family favorites include: softball, soccer, and go-karting. In the summertime, it's swimming and camping. If Jeff does find time for other sports - it's roller hockey (no surprise) and cycling.

Active, adventurous, and imaginative all describe Jeff pretty well. But, let's add disciplined - because Jeff is also an Eagle Scout. No small feat. It was a challenge that he thoroughly enjoyed. It sounds like he followed the advice of the great Yoda, "Try not. Do or do not. There is no try." And Jeff encourages others with his own Yoda-like wisdom, "If you believe it, it will happen."

So here's the way I see it. In Jeff's universe, he can only have fun helping other people have fun if he has fun doing it. Or something like that. Thanks Jeff. May the Force be with you.
