

QUINCYAN!

KEVIN DETERS

EMMY award winning Kevin Deters is our latest Quincyan. Kevin is the son of Tom & Jane Deters. He attended St. Peter's, graduated from Quincy Notre Dame in 1988, where he played soccer and the University of Illinois in 1992 with a Bachelor of Science of Architectural Studies.

He makes his home in the Los Angeles area with wife Sara and their three sons, Will, Sam and Ben. Sara is a nurse and homemaker. Kevin enjoys playing with his kids, reading and not a bit surprising, soccer, movies and comics.

Kevin has been employed by Walt Disney Animation Studios since 1996. His film credits include Mulan, Tarzan, Lilo & Stitch, Brother Bear and Chicken Little. He was the writer and director of Goofy short film How to Hook Up Your Home Theater, holiday specials Prep & Landing, and Prep & Landing: Operation Secret Santa. He is the writer and director of The Ballad of Nessie, a new short film that will be in theaters this summer with the new film, Winnie the Pooh. Kevin also wrote and directed the upcoming (2011 Holiday season) Prep & Landing: Naughty vs. Nice. Kevin received his EMMY award for Outstanding Animated Television Production for Prep & Landing and also was honored with a ASIFA Annie Award for the same film.

When asked about growing up in Quincy, Kevin recalls the wonderful milkshakes at the Deters Dairy stores and most importantly his lifelong friendships. The best advice he was given was to "Never give up".

Quincy Buzz and Quincy are very proud of Kevin Deters and so very happy he calls Quincy his hometown.

