Kyle and wife Bobbette have three children, Shannon 26 (husband A.J. Leeds), Shaun 24 (wife Angie) and Shay 22.

As owner of Zehender Robinson Stormer Cookson Funeral Home, Kyle looks for hobbies and social involvements to stay on an even keel and he definitely stays busy. Kyle plays golf, travels, plays golf, is a member of Madison Park Christian Church, is a board member of WGCA, a member of Cedar Crest Country Club, belongs to the Westview Men's League, plays golf, a member of Lambert Masonic Lodge, Quincy Shrine Club, Quincy High Twelve Club, plays golf, belongs to the Elks Lodge, is the Secretary/Treasurer of the Tri-State Funeral

Directors Association, is on the QHS Thanksgiving Tournament Committee and is a huge booster and fan of QU sports. Did I mention Kyle plays a lot of golf? Kyle was blessed with a great sense of humor and hopes to someday have grandchildren to listen to those corny jokes.

His says his real claim to fame is that he can name every crew member of Apollo and what their job was. If you see him, put him to the test.

Quincy and QuincyBuzz are very glad Kyle landed in Quincy and calls Quincy his hometown!
